Sub: JNTUA- Directorate of Faculty Development and IQAC- Financial assistance from the University to conduct the Faculty Development Programmes in constituent and affiliated Institutions – Reg.

The growth of science and technology is to be percolated to the teaching and research community through sharing of knowledge and skills by proper training. Further, the developments in various fields should be addressed to the faculty and technical staff to expand their horizon for interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary research and also to involve them in the social commitment to produce the best human resources.

This has motivated the University to provide financial assistance for the Faculty Development Programmes conducted by JNTUA constituent colleges/units and affiliated colleges. The Directorate of Faculty Development & IQAC shall conduct the FDPs with a co-ordinator at the host institution organizing the Faculty Development Programme.

The application format along with the guidelines is available in the JNTUA web portal. Applications are invited from all the JNTUA constituent colleges/units and affiliated colleges in the prescribed format. The online application is to be submitted and it is mandatory to send a hard copy of the application with relevant documents to:
